4) ITEMS FOR THE INFORMATION OF THE BOARD

4.1 Superintendent's Report: Superintendent, Gary Tempel's packet included current enrollment numbers for 2017-18 school year. VO AG building floor should be finished and we should be moving equipment in by the next board meeting. We are hoping to start by Monday on the playground. We don't have a completion date yet. We are waiting on contractors to help with this project.

4.2 Centennial Elementary School: Principal, Luke Zedwick packet included introduction of SPED teacher, Matt Tradewell, as well as education highlights summary and community highlights. Teachers will be bring back with them the skills they gathered in last year's GLAD Training, and they're preparing their units for the upcoming year.

Middle School: Principal, Greg Nolan's packet included education highlights, and athletic updates. We will be offering registration on-line again this year. Fall sports officially begin on August 22nd. Our football camp numbers were low this year.

High School: Principal, Pat Dutcher's packet included education highlights, and athletic updates. Fall sports are in full swing. We have about 32 football players this year. We have our jamboree August 25th. Volleyball and Cross Country have a good turnout this year. We will be doing registration 100% on-line this year. In July 7 teachers and myself all went to Denver for AVID Training. We received a good base to develop an instructional plan for this school year. New Student Orientation is August 30th.
