4.3.1. Centennial Elementary School

EDUCATION HIGHLIGHTS

- We have three new staff joining the Centennial team this year: Emily Barker, Third Grade; Lauren Biamont, PE; Jennifer Kelson, Counseling.
- The Rethinking Leadership workshop is kicking off the in-service activities for our licensed staff on Friday, August 23rd. The workshop will aid in continued implementation of the 7 Habits for Centennial school culture.

COMMUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

- The Parent Club is busy partnering with North Main Hair Salon for a school supply drive for our students. What a wonderful way to support our students in having a smooth transition to a new school year!
- The playground is underway! Thank you to our Parent Club for working diligently all summer on this major project. The irrigation pump and controls went in recently and fencing and playground layout is scheduled for the end of August.

4.3.2. Scio Middle School

Athletic Update

- Fall sports can officially begin practice 8/19. This includes cross country, football, and volleyball. Our home football games will be played at 5:30 PM on the high school football field. We will find out our cross country schedule at the next AD meeting.

Education Update

- Staff Development:
  - I was able to attend the COSA Assessment Institute, a two day conference that focused on designing assessments to align with instruction and to be meaningful, efficient, and effective. We will continue to prepare our students for their futures by improving the skills necessary to succeed on the SBAC/OAKS assessments and prepare middle school students for high school and beyond.
- PBIS and Student Recognition:
  - For the 2019-20 school-year, we will continue to reward students for:
    - No missing assignments for each academic quarter.
    - Attendance (including 100% Quarterly/Annually & 95% annually).
    - Students that make great choices with positive referrals (our goal is to recognize 100% of our students).
    - Improvement in attendance to focus on our reluctant learners.
    - Students that earn a 3.5 or higher GPA with Honor Roll.
    - Great behavior with the Student of the Month.
    - Students that exhibit great behavior all year with the No Referral Trip.

Staff Update

- Recommendations for hire
  - None at this time.

4.3.3. Scio High School

Athletic Update:

- Conditioning, camps, and open gyms have been going on throughout the summer.
- Fall sports officially kick off with first practices on August 19th.
- First contests are volleyball at Western Christian for a Jamboree on August 29th and football @ Monroe for a Jamboree on August 30th.
- We have two of our four fall sports with new head coaches.
  - Volleyball - Lori Ramsey
  - Cross Country - Jason Jacobson

Education Update:

- Took 9 teachers and 2 administrators to AVID Summer Institute in Seattle in July. It was 3 days of jammed packed learning. Teachers have been planning to use new strategies in their classrooms to engage and challenge student learning.
- One school-wide goal for this upcoming year created by the AVID site team is to utilize focused notes in every class.

Upcoming Events:

August 20-22- Registration

August 25-29- Teacher In-Service Week

August 28- New Student Orientation 6 pm

Sept 3 - Volleyball vs. Santiam

Sept 5 - Volleyball @ Oakland (3-way competition)

Sept 6 - Picture Day

Sept 6 - Football vs. Molalla

Sept 7 - Volleyball @ Gaston Tournament, JV @ Blanchett Tournament

Sept 10 - Volleyball @ South Umpqua

5. BOARD COMMENTS/RECOGNITION

Kerri Hyde asked where we are on the cross walk lights. Mr. Tempel found out that the city is still in the planning process. The city is going to do a grant. The one for the elementary school is in a shop somewhere. Kerri Hyde would like to know if we have staff (an Aide) that will be able to do crossing guard duty after school. Mr. Tempel will talk with the principal's and will make it happen.

Mike Ennis asked how many students are in high school band. Mrs. Blackwell said they have 2 students in high school band.
